Local Construction Company Aids In New Orleans Animal Rescue

Denver, CO -- October 20, 2005 -- dcb Construction Company, Inc., a locally owned and operated construction company since 1960, has partnered with Mile-Hi Skydiving Center, Inc., Wright Pet Clinic and Pet Rescue Colorado Effort for the purpose of co-sponsoring the rescue of 50 displaced and homeless animals due to Hurricane Katrina.

On Wednesday morning, October 19th, Mile-Hi Skydiving Center's owner and operator, Frank Casares, flew a DeHavilland Twin Otter to Tyler Town, Mississippi, where volunteers from Pet Rescue Colorado Effort were waiting with 50 displaced dogs and cats from the Louisiana Humane Society. The animals were air lifted to the Fort Collins/Loveland Airport Thursday evening, October 20th. They were transported directly to the Cloverleaf Kennel Club for veterinary medical treatments and examinations, courtesy of Wright Pet Clinic. The animals will be available for fostering and adoption beginning Saturday morning, October 22nd at the Cloverleaf Kennel Club, 3632 Boyd Lake Avenue, Loveland, Colorado. They can be reached at 970.667.6211.

Shelly Whipple, Director / Founder of Pet Rescue Colorado Effort, is asking for donations and volunteers for kennel preparation, unloading and transporting, walking, feeding and cleaning. For information on donations, fostering and adoption, please contact Ms. Whipple at 970.472.1775.

A respected Colorado builder since 1960, dcb Construction Company, Inc. began concentrating on design-build projects from its inception and today is ranked one of Colorado's top ten design-build firms by Colorado Construction Magazine. dcb is currently celebrating its 45th anniversary of providing design-build construction services throughout the state of Colorado.
